Summary of Statement(s):

On 26 January 2012, I signaled to go to the right lane and as I was merging to the right lane the black SUV hit the gas to move forward to prevent me from merging into the right lane. I was able to get into the right lane and I turned then I gave him the finger then I parked on the platform in my parking spot at my apartment building. I saw the SUV circle around a couple of times and I was able to get the license plate [REDACTED] it is a fire fighter's plate. On 29 January, at around 1000 hours, my door bell rang and I looked out the window and saw two squad cars, one behind my car and another one parked beside it. I went to buzz them in and as I was approaching my door they started banging on my door. I opened my door and there was a sergeant and he said, "Do you remember the person you gave the finger to the other day?" I responded "yah and," he stated "well that's me and by the way you have a fifty dollar ticket on your car for expired plates." I stated "they are not expired," he then said "are you a police officer?" I said "yes I am." He stated "from what department?" and I said "the Aviation Police Department." Then I thought to myself, that I don't have to be listening to him so I closed the door. The officer stated from outside the door, [REDACTED] I am not done I will call your job and I will have your job. You can call who ever you want." I know he said some other things but I could not hear him. That night I returned to work and I made my lieutenant aware of the situation and a day or two days later, I am not sure, but they told me that the sergeant had already called and spoke to a lieutenant at Midway airport. That lieutenant forwarded the information to my lieutenant at Ohare Airport and they made me aware of it.

I, [REDACTED] hereby state as follows:

1. I provided an electronically recorded statement.
2. Under penalties as provided by law pursuant to 735 ILCS 5/1-109, I certify that the information set forth in the statement(s) above and/or attached summary are true and correct, except as to any matters therein stated to be on information and belief as to such matters, I certify as aforesaid that I verily believe the same to be true.
